God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed those loving eyes,
And whispered "Peace be thine."
The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights are passed.
The ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

Obituary

Lillian Collins was born on June 15, 1898 in Starville, Mississippi to the union of Peter and Mattie Collins. She was the third of eight children.

Lillian grew up and received her elementary school education in Mississippi.

She was converted at the age of sixteen at Ebenezer Baptist Church.

In 1923, Lillian was married to James Askew. To this union was born one son, Robert Askew. Her husband preceded her in death.

In 1925, she moved to St. Louis, Missouri and there she joined the Galilee Baptist Church where she met Deacon Sidney Bennett and was later united in Holy Matrimony in 1929.

Mother Bennett was saved, sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost at 23rd and Delmore Church of God in Christ in St. Louis, Missouri.

Deacon Bennett moved his family to New York City in 1943, where he preceded her in death. Later she joined Kelley's Temple Church of God in Christ in New York City.

When her son was called to pastor Solid Rock Mission, she and her sister worked faithfully by his side.

In 1976, she moved to California to live with her son, Elder Robert Askew and worked whole-heartedly in the mission until she became disabled. Her six sisters and brothers, along with her twin brother, preceded her in death.

Mother Bennett's favorite song was "Sweeter As The Days Go By."

On April 29, 1989 at 7:00 a.m., God called her from labor to reward.

She leaves to rejoice in her memory; her devoted and loving son, Elder Robert Askew of Los Angeles; one daughter-in-law, Willine Askew; twelve grandchildren; 28 great grandchildren; four great, great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many, many friends.

In Appreciation

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not here at all,
just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much, whatever the part.
